TRAVEL TIPS

PASSPORT & VISAS

Australians need a current passport with at least six months validity from the date of entry. A visa is not required for Australian passport holders for stays of up to 90 days. Non-Australian passport holders should check their visa requirements with the Japanese Consulate-General or their travel consultant.

CREDIT CARDS

Credit cards and debit cards from major issuers are becoming increasingly accepted in major cities. However, towns in more remote areas will only accept cash as payment. There are international ATMs available at 7-Eleven convenience stores and post offices.

TIME DIFFERENCES

Japan is one hour behind Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST) except during Daylight Savings Time (DST) when there is a two hour difference.

ELECTRICITY

As voltage in Japan is 100V, travellers are required to use adaptors to convert appliances. The standard frequency is 50/60Hz. The plug and socket type in Japan is A/B, which has two vertical pins.

CURRENCY

The unit of currency in Japan is Yen. There are three bills: 1,000, 5,000 and 10,000, plus coins of smaller value: 1, 5, 10, 50, 100 and 500. You can buy Yen at hotels, banks and other authorised money exchanges; however, it is recommended to change your money prior to travel.

BOWING

The polite greeting in Japan is to bow. Bow from the waist and keep your arms straight by your side. It is a custom to imitate the bows you receive. Do not over bow or ignore the greeting. Best to always smile and nod for acknowledgement, so you do not appear to be rude.

PASMO CARD

PASMO cards are very useful cards in Japan. PASMO cards can be purchased directly at Narita and Haneda Airport or participating private railway and subway stations. You can use a PASMO card in the main areas of Japan for trains and buses, vending machines and to purchase goods from stores that accept electronic money payment.

Using PASMO: take a train or bus to explore Tokyo and Kyoto. Touch the card to the card reader on ticket gates and buses. No need to queue or buy a ticket each time you travel.

Cancelling PASMO: Take your PASMO card to a station or bus ticket centre that handles PASMO cards. The remaining balance on the card and initial deposit of 500 yen will be refunded.

He was offered land and other help for this by Yoshishige Hatano, a samurai who was one of his most devoted lay followers. Dōgen thus founded Eihei-ji, where he devoted himself to training his followers in the perfection of Zen practice. Dōgen Zenji's authentic Zen has been scrupulously observed and passed down by his successors. Today, more than 100 monks devote themselves to his practice of shikantaza (single-minded sitting).
